

PRACTICE PRIVILEGES FOR PHYSICAL THERAPISTS IN INSTITUTIONAL SETTINGS HOD P06-19-09-04 [Amended: HOD P06-91-17-21; Initial: HOD 06-90-10-17] [Position]

The American Physical Therapy Association supports physical therapists applying for and being granted practice privileges in institutional settings.

Practice privileges (synonymous with clinical privileges) are authorized by the institution's governing body to provide specific patient and client management services based on an individual's license, education, training, and experience. The privileges may encompass the full scope of physical therapist practice or be limited to a specific clinical service or patient and client population.
